Introductory Message

This Self-Learning Module (SLM) is prepared so that you, our dear learners, can continue your studies and learn while at home. Activities, questions, directions, exercises, and discussions are carefully stated for you to understand each lesson.

Each SLM is composed of different parts. Each part shall guide you step-by-step as you discover and understand the lesson prepared for you.

Pre-tests are provided to measure your prior knowledge on lessons in each SLM. This will tell you if you need to proceed on completing this module or if you need to ask your facilitator or your teacher's assistance for better understanding of the lesson. At the end of each module, you need to answer the post-test to self-check your learning. Answer keys are provided for each activity and test. We trust that you will be honest in using these.

In addition to the material in the main text, Notes to the Teacher are also provided to our facilitators and parents for strategies and reminders on how they can best help you on your home-based learning.

Please use this module with care. Do not put unnecessary marks on any part of this SLM. Use a separate sheet of paper in answering the exercises and tests. And read the instructions carefully before performing each task.

If you have any questions in using this SLM or any difficulty in answering the tasks in this module, do not hesitate to consult your teacher or facilitator.

Thank you.

What I Need to Know

This module was designed and written with you in mind. It is here to help you to plan and conceptualize your social advocacy and guide you to create your own concept paper. The scope of this module permits to be used in many different learning situations. The language used recognize the diverse vocabulary level of students. The lessons are arranged to follow the standard sequence of the course. But the order in which you read them can be changed to correspond with the textbook you are now using.

What is It

Planning and Conceptualizing the Content

Always start with the ends in mind. Generate your own ideas about content and identify various opportunities based on your target audience. Have a clear plan of actions, responsibilities, work requirements, timeframe and budget if needed. Set a SMART goal to target.

Specific – (What do you want to do or want to achieve?) Set a real goal that is direct, detailed and meaningful. Make sure that your goals are focused and can identify a concrete outcome. Your goal will be at risk or vague without the specifics of the goal, because knowing what you wanted to achieve is knowing the leverage to success.

Measurable – (When will you know when you reach it? What are the signs of your success?) – Make sure that you goal is trackable and quantifiable. Defining your own definition of “success” will aid you to estimate your current achievement level on reaching your specific goals.

Attainable – (Is it possible for you to reach your goal?) Work towards a goal that is challenging but possible and doable. Check if you have the tools or resources that will help you to achieve and attain your goals.

Realistic – (Are your current skills enough to reach your goal?) Knowing yourself is the key to your success. Be honest with yourself and know your capabilities and the things that you cannot do. Be realistic toward your goals as well as on your capacity to do.

Time-Bound- (When exactly do you plan to accomplish it?) Give yourself a deadline. Every goal should have a target date to finish. Having deadlines motivates oneself to do more efficiently and helps you to be focused in reaching your goals.

Concept Paper

Concept papers are summaries of projects or issues that contemplate interests, experience and expertise that commonly serves as a purpose of delivering an in-depth discussion of a certain topic that a person has a strong position on.
