Homeroom Guidance Grade 5

Quarter 1 – Module 2:

Connecting with Others

Gabay sa Magulang/ Tagapag-alaga

Malaki ang gampanin ng mga magulang upang mapagtagumpayan ang mga gawaing nakalatag dito. Kakailanganin ng mag-aaral ang inyong patnubay at gabay sa mga gawaing nakapaloob dito. Kung kaya, hinihingi ng DepEd ang inyong suporta upang mapagtagumpayan ng mag-aaral ang mga hamon sa buhay, maisakatuparan ang mga inaasahang gawain at higit sa lahat, matutuhan ang mga kasanayan sa buhay na kailangan nilang taglayin sa yugtong ito.

Tatalakayin sa ikalawang modyul (1st Quarter) na pinamagatang “Connecting with Others” ang tungkol sa pagkakaparehas at pagkakaiba ng mga tao. Tulungan ang mag-aaral na salaminin ang kahalagahan ng pagiging bahagi ng pamilya, paaralan at ng komunidad at gayundin ang paraan ng pagpapakita ng pagpapahalaga sa pagkakaiba tungo sa maayos na pakikisalamuha sa kapuwa.

Ihinanda ang modyul na ito upang magkaroon ang mag-aaral ng kaalaman sa iba’t ibang aspeto na makapagpapaunlad sa kanilang mga sarili na magagamit sa kanilang pang-araw-araw na pamumuhay. Hinihingi ang inyong tulong sa paggabay sa pag-unawa at pagsagot ng mga ilang katanungan sa mga aralin sa modyul. Kung may mga katanungan hinggil sa bawat aralin, huwag mag-atubili na manghingi ng tulong sa kaniyang gurong-tagapayo.

Introductory Message

For the learner:

CONNECTING WITH OTHERS

Learning Objectives

At the end of this module, you are expected to:

1. enumerate the rights, similarities and differences of individuals;
2. identify the importance of having others in the family, school and community;
3. demonstrate respect for individual differences to maintain harmonious relationship; and
4. share positive experiences as a result of respecting individual differences.

Suggested Total Time Allotted: 180 minutes (Week 3-5 of 1st Quarter)

Materials Needed:

- Ball pen/ Pencil
- Clean sheets of paper

Introduction

Suggested Time Allotment: 5 minutes (Week 3)

After knowing yourself, it is now time to get to know the people around you. Explore how you can relate with one another. Try to appreciate your connections with them and how these connections can help you build positive relationships. Self-discovery would be fun, exciting and full of surprises as you connect yourself to others. They give us a different view on how we take things and hopefully be mindful with the people around us.

Let's Try This

Suggested Time Allotment: 25 minutes (Week 3)

Read the poem below and try to understand the meaning and its message.

We All Need Love

By Diane Penuel L. Duclan

We, children, are all the same,
boy or girl; rich or poor; big or small.
We're smart in our own way.
Big dreams we have, I say.

Some are born to happy parents;
Some others, from home are away.
We have different colors but the same rights we have.
We want respect and we all need love.

Processing Questions:

Write your answers on a clean sheet of paper.

1. What is the message of the poem?
2. How are we different from others as presented in the poem?
3. How will you treat others who are different from you?

Let's Explore This

Society of Different People with Equal Rights

You are part of the society and you share equal human rights with other people. United Nations declared that everyone is entitled to all the rights and privileges. It doesn't matter if you're different in color, gender, language, and religion. All have equal rights. However, you need to be responsible, as well.

The table below shows some of the rights of a child and their responsibilities. Do you remember them as discussed in your Araling Panlipunan 4?

Rights and Responsibilities of a Child

Some Rights that I Should Enjoy	Some Duties that I Have to Do
-The right to eat healthy food, wear clothes, live in a house, to be cured from sickness, and other basic needs. - The right to be brought up in an atmosphere of morality and uprightness for the improvement and the strengthening of his character. -The right to be in school and study to improve my skills and abilities. -The right to play, be with friends and do hobbies. -To have a safe environment free from harm and other forms of abuse like physical, sexual, emotional and child labor. -The right to live in a healthy and safe environment that positively affect his/her behavior.	-I must choose to eat healthy food, wear clean clothes, keep my house clean and stay healthy by exercising. - I must live an upright life based on my religion, the teachings of my parents/elders, and my ability to choose between right and wrong. -I must study well and be a good student -I must stay safe when playing, be with good friends and spend time doing what I like responsibly. -I must be open to my parents with things that make me feel uncomfortable or unsafe. -I must understand other's opinion, learn from the elders and live to be a better person.

You, together with other people, should cooperate to enjoy your rights. Below are some of the roles, duties and responsibilities of the community.

As a person, you should:

1. Respect others and their belongings.
2. Be there for others.
3. Keep your surroundings clean.

Each Family is expected to:

1. Provide clean and decent home to its members.
2. Teach their children life lessons.
3. Provide basic needs such as clothing, food, and water.

The School is expected to:

1. Make you independent

2. Make you believe in yourself.
3. Help you understand that everyone is unique.

The Community is expected to:

1. Keep everyone safe and secured.
2. Put law into practice.
3. Unite for the betterment of all.

Everyone has specific roles and responsibilities as a member of the society. In order to help yourself and others, you need to be respectful and build a harmonious relationship with other people.

You Can Do It!

Suggested Time Allotment: 20 minutes (Week 5)

Recall a positive experience with your family, friends, classmates, neighbors or community member which shows respect to others.

Example: When you gave way to elders in line.
