What is It

REMEMBER

To determine the relevance and truthfulness of an idea presented especially from the media, we assume that everything is true. In this lesson, determining the relevance and truthfulness needs to be scrutinized and examined. Here are some of the basic aspects to consider in identifying relevance and truth of the ideas presented from the material viewed; (a) fallacy, (b) fact, (c) opinion, and (bias)

- a. Fallacy - it is an idea which is believed to be true but it is really false due to incorrect information or reasoning.
- b. Fact - is an idea which is true and can be verified factually or proven.
- c. Opinion - is an idea or statement which only comes from someone's feelings and cannot be proven.
- d. Bias – it is an idea that leads to poor judgment and poor decision making towards a certain thing for it could be positive one in favor of a certain person and negative for the other one.

Activity 1

Look at the pictures below and give your personal insights for each picture. Tell what makes each picture an example of an aspect in identifying the relevance and truthfulness.

1. Fallacy

2. Fact and Opinion

3. Bias

Guide questions

1. What idea is presented by each picture above? For fallacy? For fact and opinion? For bias?
2. Why did you consider that each of the pictures is fallacy, fact and opinion, and bias?
3. What are your bases for telling each picture's aspects?"
4. If you are to check the relevance and truthfulness of the picture, how will you assess these pictures?
5. Is knowing the relevance and truthfulness of an image or idea necessary? Why?

Activity 2

At this point, you have developed strategies to help you understand the literary piece with unfamiliar words. Context clues are one way of understanding unfamiliar words. - _____ 1. It means to generate pus because of an irritated wound.
- _____ 2. It is defined as a sticky solution of sugar.

What happens to a dream deferred?

Does it dry up
Like a raisin in the sun?
Or fester like a sore--
And then run?
Does it stink like rotten meat?
Or crust and sugar over--
like a syrupy sweet?

Maybe it just sags
like a heavy load.

Or does it explode?

1. In your point of view, how does a certain dream should be attained?
2. Does a certain dream need to be postponed?
3. If you will answer the questions of the author, what will be your responses?
